

For Immediate Release

40 Thai Brands Showcase Creative Jewelry at the 62nd Bangkok Gems & Jewelry Fair

Department of International Trade Promotion (DITP) showcases creative Thai jewelry brands to international buyers and visitors at the Creative Jewelry Project that features jewelry designed by 40 brands that participated in the Jewelry Training Series held throughout the year. At the training, brands received one-on-one consultations from experts who guided the brands on design, brand-building, manufacturing to product development. Brands that were selected to join the exhibition includes APAWAN STUDIO which presents craftsmanship that combines metals and gemstones with alternative industrial materials such as plastic straws that is lightweight, Thaniya which expands its know-how in terra cotta and painting to jewelry-making, telling stories through its jewelry creations.

The 62nd Bangkok Gems & Jewelry Fair takes place from September 7 to 11, 2018 at Challenger Hall 1-3, IMPACT Muang Thong Thani. The fair opens for trade negotiations during September 7 to 9 at 10 a.m. - 6 p.m. and opens for the general public on September 10 at 10 a.m. - 6 p.m. and September 11 at 10 a.m. - 5 p.m. For more information and pre-registration, please visit www.bkkgems.com or dial DITP Call Center 1169.