73rd Bangkok Gems Networking Reception Showcases Exquisite Thai Jewelry and Strengthens International Gem and Jewelry Partnerships

Ms. Sunanta Kangvulkij, Director-General of the Department of International Trade Promotion (DITP), together with Mr. Sumed Prasongpongchai, Director General of the Gem and Jewelry Institute of Thailand (GIT), co-hosted the Networking Reception at the 73rd Bangkok Gems and Jewelry Fair on 22 February 2026 at the Ballroom of the Queen Sirikit National Convention Center (QSNCC). The event was attended by a large number of entrepreneurs, importers, business leaders, and distinguished guests from Thailand and abroad.

The Networking Reception is one of the key highlights of Bangkok Gems, designed to create opportunities for Thai entrepreneurs to connect with buyers and business partners from around the world. Through discussions, exchanges of perspectives, and relationship-building in a welcoming atmosphere conducive to business negotiations, participants are able to foster partnerships and pave the way for future trade collaboration.

The 73rd edition of Bangkok Gems marks another significant milestone, as it is the first time the exhibition has expanded into the Plenary Hall, adding more than 200 additional booths to accommodate growing demand from both Thai and international exhibitors. This expansion reflects strong confidence in Bangkok Gems as a vital global trading platform and a gateway to limitless business opportunities.

The reception also featured a curated showcase of special jewelry collections from selected exhibitors, highlighting the design excellence, craftsmanship, and creativity of Thailand’s gems and jewelry industry to an international audience. The event reaffirmed Bangkok Gems’ role as a key platform for strengthening networks and driving global trade in gems and jewelry.

The 73rd Bangkok Gems and Jewelry Fair takes place from 22–26 February 2026 at the Queen Sirikit National Convention Center in Bangkok. The fair is expected to welcome visitors from countries around the world, reinforcing Thailand’s image as a global hub for gems and jewelry trade.
