Bangkok Gems and Jewelry Fair has entered its 61st year with the theme of ‘Heritage and Craftsmanship’ recently. The exhibition aims to provide a platform for local and international companies to enhance and promote trade and commerce.

The exhibit is speculated to increase and support Thailand’s export of gems and jewelry.

Sontirat Sontijirawong, Minister of Commerce said, “The Bangkok Gems and Jewelry Fair is a key platform that offers an opportunity for Thai companies, both large and small, to do business with high-potential business people and buyers from around the world, learn about consumers’ needs, and expand their business networks and exchange knowledge with others.”

The venue also has workshops and seminars for the consultation of potential traders and buyers and to encourage two-way exchange of ideas among business leaders.

The exhibition will be held from February 21 to 25.
